

CPO ROUNDTABLE

Getting Runs on the Board Procurement's Partnership with Finance Wednesday 15th September (14.00 GMT/ 9.00 EST)

Start	Delegates are able to log on at the start time for the event on the Procurious platform using the Join with Zoom button
14.00	platform using the John with 200m button
14.05	Openers - Welcome by Roundtable Chair, Tania Seary, Founder of Procurious Agenda Overview Rules of play for making the most of the roundtable
14.10	The Warm-up – Quick-Fire Intro
	A quick-fire introduction to Roundtable participants
	■ Name
	Role and Organisation Nhat is your forguitte sport?
	What is your favourite sport?
14.25	Credit Crunch – What Happens When the Music Stops?
	Chris Lynch, Former CFO, Rio Tinto & BHP and David Ketchin, Managing Director of Europe, The Hackett Group
	Every government on earth is printing money. What happens when all the quantitative easing stops? What Procurement needs to know now
14.40	Team Huddle
	An important part of our Roundtable ethos is to build relationships and a peer-support network for our senior leaders. In this session we break into smaller groups to focus on the following questions:
	 Question 1 – what is your strategy for managing the relationship with Finance Question 2 – what are the current financial imperatives for your organisation. What are you doing about it?
15.00	Feedback from the Groups

Div Pillay, CEO & Co-Founder, MindTribes and Miles Rose, Commercial Director at SweetSpot Group After England lost in the 2020 UEFA European Football Championship, online abuse was targeted at three Black players, Bukayo Saka, Marcus Rashford and Jadon Sancho. This incident reveals a larger societal problem of racism in sports and online. Div Pillay (CEO & Co-Founder, MindTribes) will share why #culturallydiversewomen need to bring their bring their different thinking and working styles, international experience, creative problem solving to #reimagine futures. and will ask the question, "what are leaders of #CDW doing to create safe and inclusive spaces for these women to thrive and lead?" Miles Rose (Commercial Director at SweetSpot Group) will share ways major sporting bodies are working to combat harassment and racial abuse online. 15.35 Tea break 15.45 Team Huddle In this session we will be building the issues that have been raised during the day Question 1 – What is your current return to work plan? (if there is one) Question 2 – How are you building and nurturing a diverse & inclusive team? 16.05 Feedback from the groups 16.15 Playing to Win Nasser Hussain A British cricket commentator and former cricketer who captained the England cricket team between 1999 and 2003. A pugnacious right-handed batsman, Hussain scored over 30,000 runs from more than 650 matches across all first-class and List-A cricket, including 62 centuries. His highest Test score of 207, scored in the first Test of the 1997 Ashes at Edgbaston, was described by Wisden as "touched by genius". 16.40 Wrap Up and Close Chair will draw the event to a close and summarise key insights and takeaways from the day 16.50 End of day	15.15	Sledging – Why Words Matter in Diversity & Inclusion: Panel Discussion abuse was targeted at three Black players, Bukayo Saka, Marcus Rashford and Jadon Sancho. This incident reveals a larger societal problem of racism in sports and online. Div Pillay (CEO & Co-Founder, MindTribes) will share why #culturallydiversewomen need to bring their bring their different thinking and working styles, international experience, creative problem solving to #reimagine futures. and will ask the question, "what are leaders of #CDW doing to create safe and inclusive spaces for these women to thrive and lead?" Miles Rose (Commercial Director at SweetSpot Group) will share ways major sporting bodies are working to combat harassment and racial abuse online. 15.35 Tea break Team Huddle In this session we will be building the issues that have been raised during the day Question 1 – What is your current return to work plan? (if there is one) Question 2 – How are you building and nurturing a diverse & inclusive team? 16.05 Feedback from the groups 16.15 Playing to Win Nasser Hussain A British cricket commentator and former cricketer who captained the England cricket team between 1999 and 2003. A pugnacious right-handed batsman, Hussain scored over 30,000 runs from more than 650 matches across all first-class and List-A cricket, including 62 centuries. His highest Test score of 207, scored in the first Test of the 1997 Ashes at Edgbaston, was described by Wisden as "touched by genius". Wrap Up and Close Chair will draw the event to a close and summarise key insights and takeaways from the day		Div Pillay, CEO & Co-Founder, MindTribes and Miles Rose, Commercial
why #culturallydiversewomen need to bring their bring their different thinking and working styles, international experience, creative problem solving to #reimagine futures. and will ask the question, "what are leaders of #CDW doing to create safe and inclusive spaces for these women to thrive and lead?" Miles Rose (Commercial Director at SweetSpot Group) will share ways major sporting bodies are working to combat harassment and racial abuse online. 15.35 Tea break 15.45 Team Huddle In this session we will be building the issues that have been raised during the day Question 1 – What is your current return to work plan? (if there is one) Question 2 – How are you building and nurturing a diverse & inclusive team? 16.05 Feedback from the groups 16.15 Playing to Win Nasser Hussain A British cricket commentator and former cricketer who captained the England cricket team between 1999 and 2003. A pugnacious right-handed batsman, Hussain scored over 30,000 runs from more than 650 matches across all first-class and List-A cricket, including 62 centuries. His highest Test score of 207, scored in the first Test of the 1997 Ashes at Edgbaston, was described by Wisden as "touched by genius". 16.40 Wrap Up and Close Chair will draw the event to a close and summarise key insights and takeaways from the day		abuse was targeted at three Black players, Bukayo Saka, Marcus Rashford and Jadon Sancho. This incident reveals a larger societal problem of racism sporting bodies are working to combat harassment and racial abuse online. 15.35 Tea break 15.45 Team Huddle In this session we will be building the issues that have been raised during the day Question 1 – What is your current return to work plan? (if there is one) Question 2 – How are you building and nurturing a diverse & inclusive team? 16.05 Feedback from the groups Playing to Win Nasser Hussain A British cricket commentator and former cricketer who captained the England cricket team between 1999 and 2003. A pugnacious right-handed batsman, Hussain scored over 30,000 runs from more than 650 matches across all first-class and List-A cricket, including 62 centuries. His highest Test score of 207, scored in the first Test of the 1997 Ashes at Edgbaston, was described by Wisden as "touched by genius". 16.40 Wrap Up and Close Chair will draw the event to a close and summarise key insights and take-aways from the day		why #culturallydiversewomen need to bring their bring their different thinking and working styles, international experience, creative problem solving to #reimagine futures. and will ask the question, "what are leaders of #CDW doing to create safe and inclusive spaces for these women to thrive
15.45 Team Huddle In this session we will be building the issues that have been raised during the day Question 1 – What is your current return to work plan? (if there is one) Question 2 – How are you building and nurturing a diverse & inclusive team? 16.05 Feedback from the groups Playing to Win Nasser Hussain A British cricket commentator and former cricketer who captained the England cricket team between 1999 and 2003. A pugnacious right-handed batsman, Hussain scored over 30,000 runs from more than 650 matches across all first-class and List-A cricket, including 62 centuries. His highest Test score of 207, scored in the first Test of the 1997 Ashes at Edgbaston, was described by Wisden as "touched by genius". Wrap Up and Close Chair will draw the event to a close and summarise key insights and take-aways from the day		, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
In this session we will be building the issues that have been raised during the day • Question 1 – What is your current return to work plan? (if there is one) • Question 2 – How are you building and nurturing a diverse & inclusive team? 16.05 Feedback from the groups Playing to Win Nasser Hussain A British cricket commentator and former cricketer who captained the England cricket team between 1999 and 2003. A pugnacious right-handed batsman, Hussain scored over 30,000 runs from more than 650 matches across all first-class and List-A cricket, including 62 centuries. His highest Test score of 207, scored in the first Test of the 1997 Ashes at Edgbaston, was described by Wisden as "touched by genius". 16.40 Wrap Up and Close Chair will draw the event to a close and summarise key insights and take-aways from the day	15.35	Tea break day Question 1 – What is your current return to work plan? (if there is one) Question 2 – How are you building and nurturing a diverse & inclusive team? 16.05 Feedback from the groups 16.15 Playing to Win Nasser Hussain A British cricket commentator and former cricketer who captained the England cricket team between 1999 and 2003. A pugnacious right-handed batsman, Hussain scored over 30,000 runs from more than 650 matches across all first-class and List-A cricket, including 62 centuries. His highest Test score of 207, scored in the first Test of the 1997 Ashes at Edgbaston, was described by Wisden as "touched by genius". 16.40 Wrap Up and Close Chair will draw the event to a close and summarise key insights and take-aways from the day	15.45	Team Huddle Question 1 – What is your current return to work plan? (if there is one) Question 2 – How are you building and nurturing a diverse & inclusive team? 16.05 Feedback from the groups 16.15 Playing to Win Nasser Hussain A British cricket commentator and former cricketer who captained the England cricket team between 1999 and 2003. A pugnacious right-handed batsman, Hussain scored over 30,000 runs from more than 650 matches across all first-class and List-A cricket, including 62 centuries. His highest Test score of 207, scored in the first Test of the 1997 Ashes at Edgbaston, was described by Wisden as "touched by genius". 16.40 Wrap Up and Close Chair will draw the event to a close and summarise key insights and take-aways from the day
16.15 Playing to Win Nasser Hussain A British cricket commentator and former cricketer who captained the England cricket team between 1999 and 2003. A pugnacious right-handed batsman, Hussain scored over 30,000 runs from more than 650 matches across all first-class and List-A cricket, including 62 centuries. His highest Test score of 207, scored in the first Test of the 1997 Ashes at Edgbaston, was described by Wisden as "touched by genius". Wrap Up and Close Chair will draw the event to a close and summarise key insights and take-aways from the day		 Question 1 – What is your current return to work plan? (if there is one)
Nasser Hussain A British cricket commentator and former cricketer who captained the England cricket team between 1999 and 2003. A pugnacious right-handed batsman, Hussain scored over 30,000 runs from more than 650 matches across all first-class and List-A cricket, including 62 centuries. His highest Test score of 207, scored in the first Test of the 1997 Ashes at Edgbaston, was described by Wisden as "touched by genius". Wrap Up and Close Chair will draw the event to a close and summarise key insights and take-aways from the day	16.05	Feedback from the groups
Nasser Hussain A British cricket commentator and former cricketer who captained the England cricket team between 1999 and 2003. A pugnacious right-handed batsman, Hussain scored over 30,000 runs from more than 650 matches across all first-class and List-A cricket, including 62 centuries. His highest Test score of 207, scored in the first Test of the 1997 Ashes at Edgbaston, was described by Wisden as "touched by genius". Wrap Up and Close Chair will draw the event to a close and summarise key insights and take-aways from the day	16.15	Playing to Win
England cricket team between 1999 and 2003. A pugnacious right-handed batsman, Hussain scored over 30,000 runs from more than 650 matches across all first-class and List-A cricket, including 62 centuries. His highest Test score of 207, scored in the first Test of the 1997 Ashes at Edgbaston, was described by Wisden as "touched by genius". Wrap Up and Close Chair will draw the event to a close and summarise key insights and takeaways from the day
Chair will draw the event to a close and summarise key insights and take- aways from the day		England cricket team between 1999 and 2003. A pugnacious right-handed batsman, Hussain scored over 30,000 runs from more than 650 matches across all first-class and List-A cricket, including 62 centuries. His highest Test score of 207, scored in the first Test of the 1997 Ashes at Edgbaston, was aways from the day	16.40	Wrap Up and Close
16.50 End of day		• -
	16.50	End of day